Build Your Organization With the Latest HR Strategies

Managing employees is critical to every organization's success. With a significant portion of a company's net worth tied to its personnel, professionals with a mastery of employee relations and human resources have become important leaders of the organization.

Villanova University has developed the comprehensive online Master Certificate in Human Resource Management program to help HR professionals and other managers implement employee relations techniques that strengthen internal initiatives. This online certificate program gives you training on advanced concepts such as strategic management, workforce planning, human resource development and organizational management – and the practical skills to implement these concepts.

DISTINGUISH YOURSELF WITH HR CERTIFICATION

Villanova University's Human Resource Management Certificate Program gives you strategies for handling real-life HR issues and critical topics including: critical management functions; best practices in aligning the human resources department with the organization's strategic goals; recruiting, compensation, benefits and employee relations.

This online program prepares HR professionals to take either the Professional in Human Resources (PHR®) or the Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR®) exam toward certification by the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI) – a division of SHRM. The program includes one-year access to the SHRM Learning System, with practical exams and valuable study materials (a $600 value). The 12-week HR Management course contains the latest content including:

- Updated information based on HRCI's new Body of Knowledge.
- More than 1,600 questions allow you to test your knowledge and better prepare for the certification exam.
- New interactive case study focused on real-life situations faced by HR professionals. Apply learned concepts in eight different scenarios and work through questions for each.

BALANCE HR FUNCTION WITH ORGANIZATIONAL PERFORMANCE

In today's ever-changing business environment, HR managers and executives are responsible for more than just hiring and firing – they are accountable for performance that drives results. The Mastering Organizational Effectiveness certificate contains the latest HR issues impacting today's business climate, such as conflict resolution, consulting techniques and influencing skills. This course begins with the mechanics of organizational change, then focuses on the competencies required to manage both people and processes.

BECOME AN HR EXPERT – EARN A MASTER CERTIFICATE!

By completing three courses, participants can earn a Master Certificate in Human Resource Management. Earning a master certificate demonstrates a solid understanding of core human resources skills and illustrates career dedication.
